Contents

In the 1973 Mariner, we hope to remind you of the many facets of our days at Harbor.

Each of us has played an important part as an individual in the lives of other people. Our special abilities have shown through. And yet we've become a solid group, bonded by friendship.

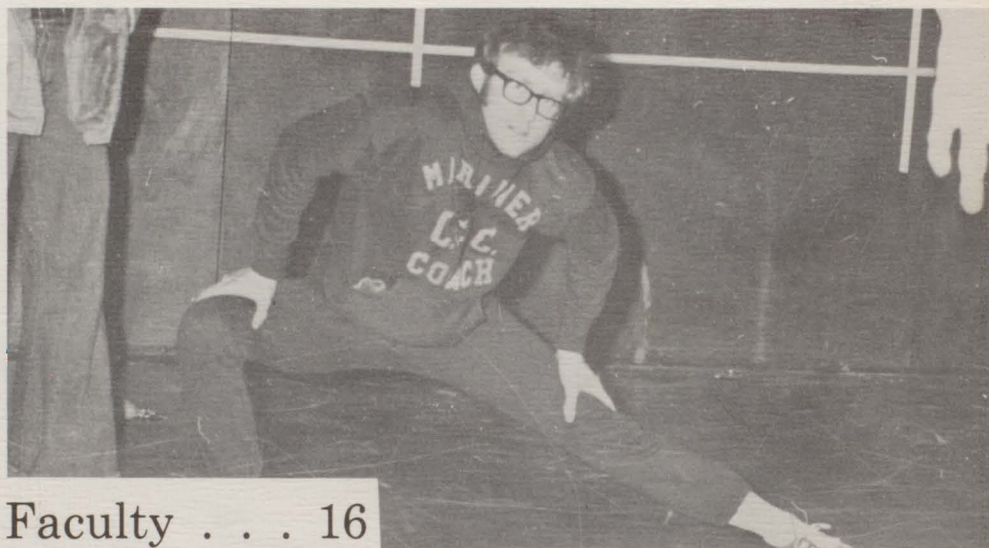

Each of us does things in his unique way, adding to everyone else's life.

No One Can Be Happy
Unless He Feels In Some Way Important.

You Are Unique In All The World.

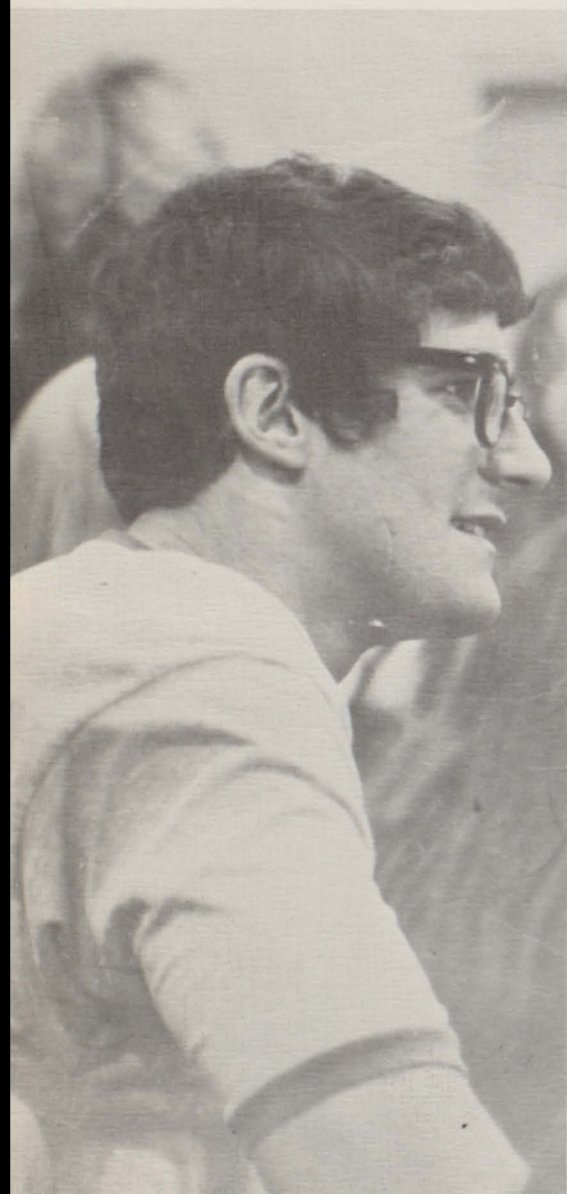

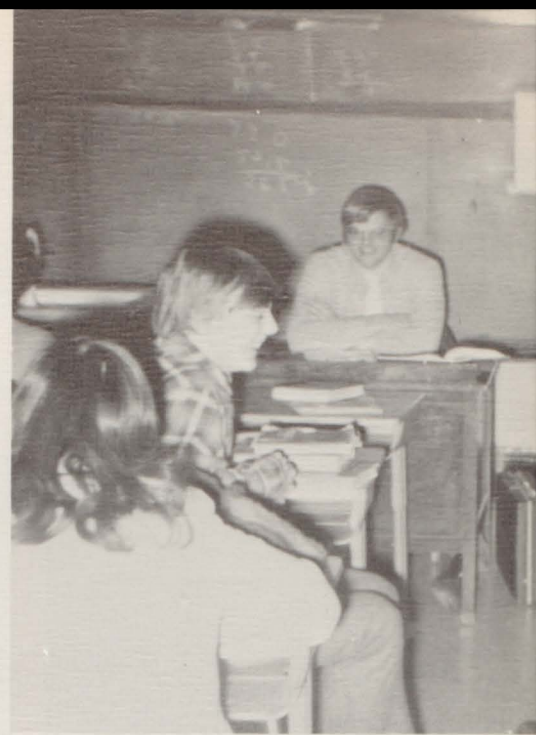

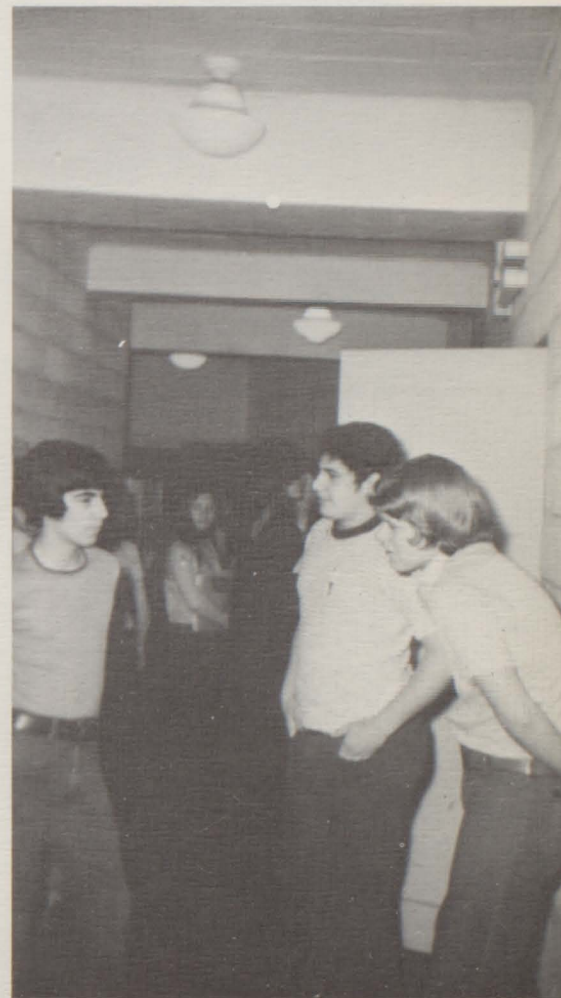

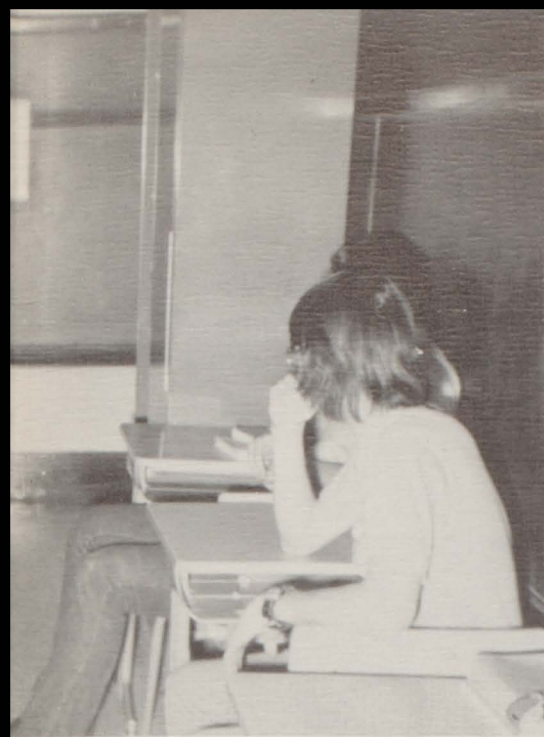

There's A Place And Means
For Every Man Alive.

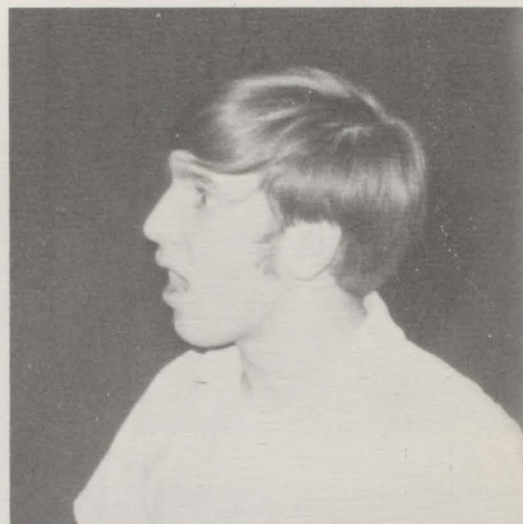

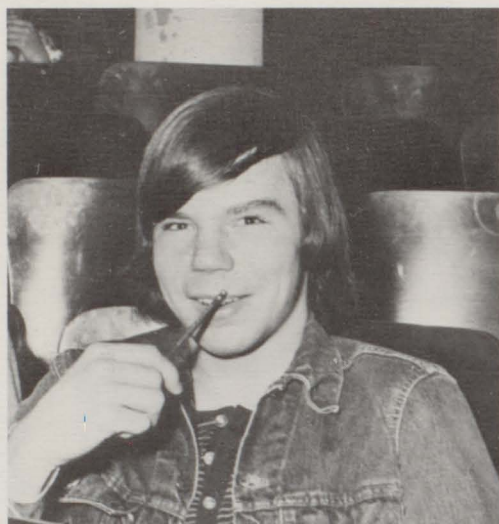

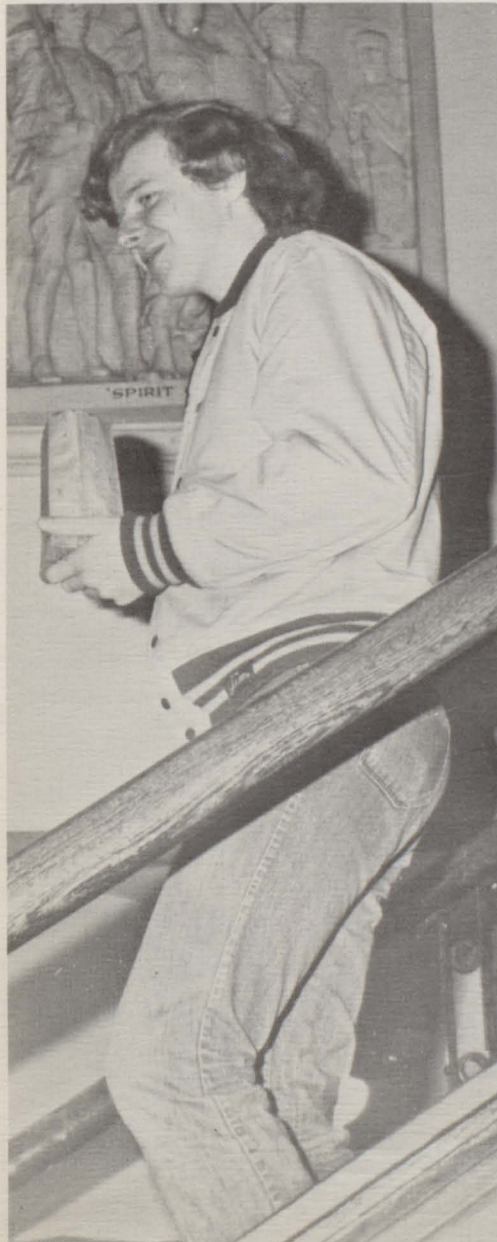

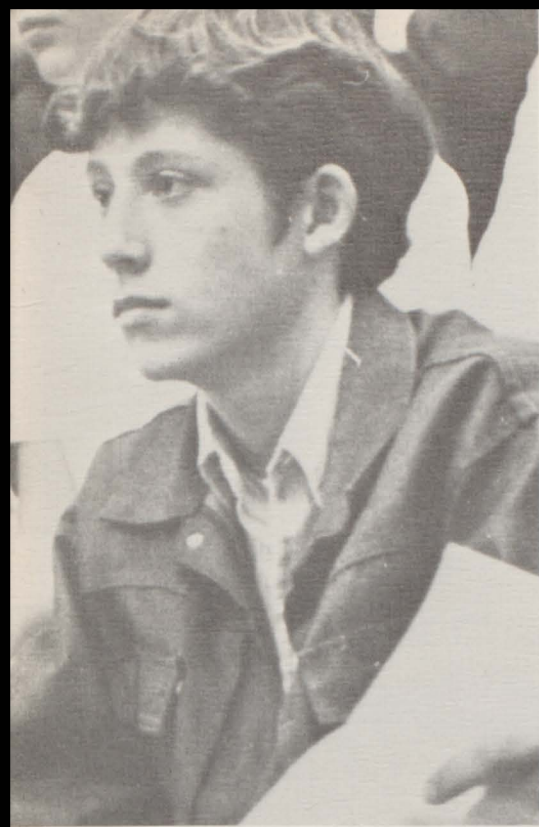

There Are As Many Ways
As There Are Desires.

Isn't It Surprising That
Among So Many Faces
There Are None Alike?

I Gotta Be Me!

Barbara Kunes

Miss Barbara Kunes has been at Harbor four years, teaching math classes, algebra and geometry honors.

Students appreciate that she is always available for help and that she can make her often difficult subject clear and enjoyable.

Her classroom manner is pleasant and fun; at the same time she takes her subject seriously and dedicates much time to the job.

Besides her classes she has advised the Class of 1973, the Math Club, the Ski Club, and the cheerleaders.

In short, she has played an integral part in the lives of many Harbor students.

Class Of '73

Our class, never one to lag behind, started the good times at Harbor by selling candy and Christmas candles until they seemed to come out of our ears. We learned together, met lots of new people, and became good friends as the time went by. We were all unique people, but we all belonged to a special group: those who were known as "the ones from Harbor."

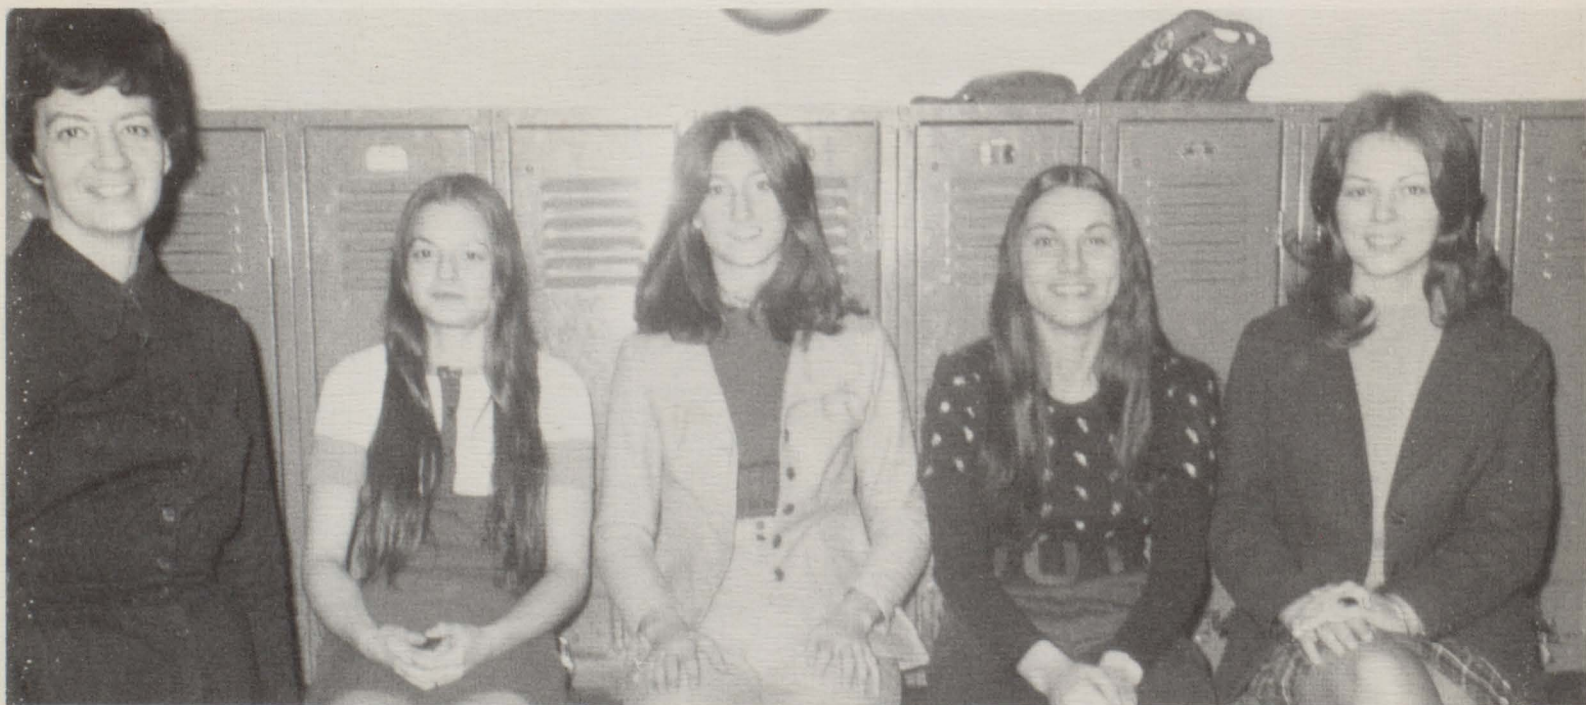

In our junior year we slaved over the best prom Harbor ever had (at least we thought it was). When that evening in May arrived, it surpassed even the highest expectations. (Who would've known that only three short hours ago, "The Windmills of Your Mind" still weren't turning?!)

From the beginning of our senior year, the feeling that we'd reached the "head of the class" started growing.

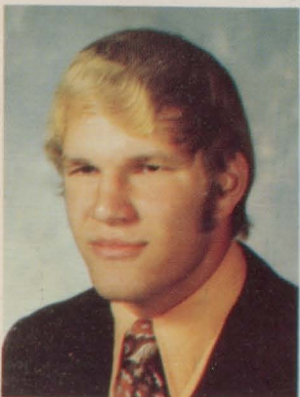

Friendships became more tightly knit, and we all felt close.

Now it is nearly time to look back on those four happy years . . . hard to believe, isn't it? Somehow it seems just last week we were counting the pigeons on the Jackson Building bell tower . . . bubbling over our first Homecoming Dance . . . taking biology labs down at the beach . . . being in the fantastically original "Here and Now" . . . watching the excitement of a football game . . . seeing "Dr. Faustus" in Cleveland . . . singing "Senior Class Blues" in the Variety Show . . . trying to survive spring fever in November . . . and suddenly being graduated!

All the moments grew into days, then years—and now we're heading for jobs, college, or whatever. Let's hope that we never lose our enthusiasm and energy!

Mrs. Nancy Hunt, adviser; Ronni Urbana, vice-president; Ann Flower, treasurer; Liz Bisesto, secretary; Jeannette Fassett, president.

To Live In Hearts We Leave Behind Is Not To Die.

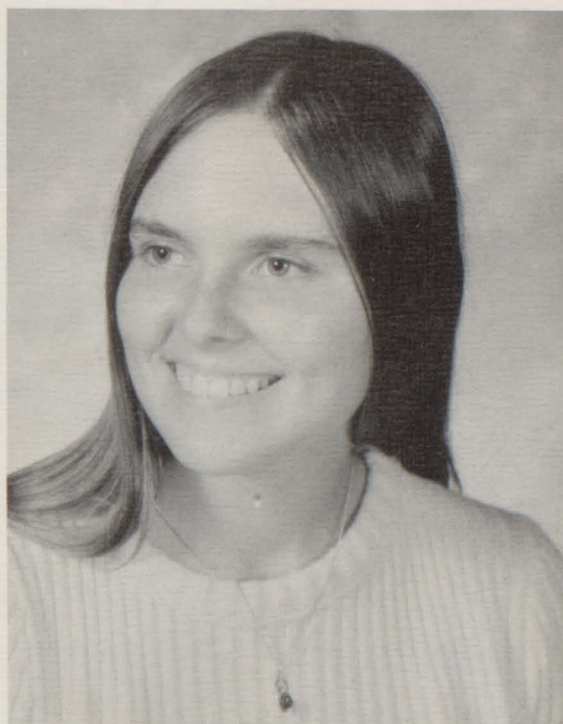

Bob Schroeder

Bob's name will always ring a familiar bell with the many friends who knew him, even though he was called away from us abruptly in a plane crash the summer before we started to high school.

Those of us who were in school with Bob since kindergarten remember him well as a person always full of cheer and fun.

It is always hard to grow used to the absence of a person as full of life and enthusiasm as Bob was.

As he played an active part in our grade school lives, he has a special spot in our memories.

Vicki Scott

Vicki was a member of our class right up to this fall, when she left us very suddenly as the result of an auto accident.

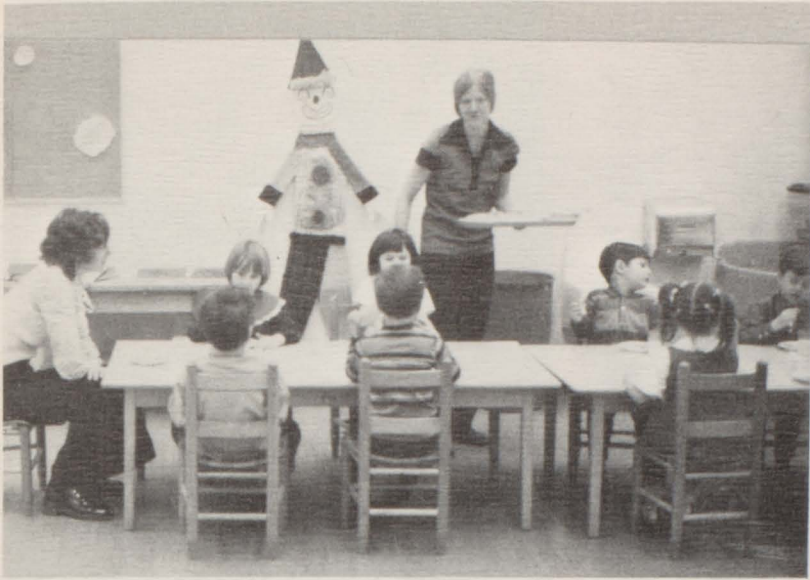

It was a sad surprise for us to have such a really wonderful person snatched from us so abruptly.

Vicki left a warm memory with each of her many friends who worked and played with her in school activities.

Nobody can ever fill her place in our hearts; yet, thoughts of Vicki bring not sorrow and grief but a happiness that comes from being close to a sincerely beautiful person.

Academic Challenge Team

In September, sixteen seniors took part in tryouts for Harbor's Academic Challenge Team. Mr. Robert Huff asked questions on history, English, science, math, and general categories. Six finalists were chosen on a basis of quick answers.

The television program Academic Challenge, is sponsored by the OEI-Ohio Edison Companies. Because only 40 schools were chosen from the 114 in Northeast Ohio, the Harbor team was not able to go.

One More Year To Go!

In the first two months of the school year, members of the junior class had the traditional junior class candy bar sale.

When the Merchants' Fall Festival came up in October, Harbor juniors had a booth to sell popcorn, pop, and candy bars.

Juniors' mothers held a rummage sale at the Second Congregational Church in early December.

Stu Cordell and Cathy Hakala were chosen as prom co-chairmen. They organized plans, preparations, and committees for the Junior-Senior Prom in the spring.

Class of '75

Sophomores had one major fund-raising project and various minor ones.

By selling all-purpose Rex soap, they earned nearly $1,050 by Christmas.

They had the annual car-wash on Prom Day, of which many juniors and seniors took advantage. Bake sales rounded up the class treasury also.

Sophomores selected class ring styles and placed their orders later in the year.

Freshmen

The Class of 1976 promises to be one of the most enthusiastic Harbor has ever seen.

Freshmen began the year with several bake sales and car washes to raise money.

Mrs. Encie Moroski, Mr. Larry Herl, and Mr. Dean McQuaide helped organize a magazine sale for the class.

In the second half of the year freshmen had more bake sales and car washes, walk-a-thons, benefit dances, parties, sales at games, and other class projects.

Freshman spirit added lots of life to all the pep assemblies and sports events throughout the year.

That's the story of my life.

Homecoming

Miss Wendie Burnett, elected by the three upper classes, reigned as Homecoming queen for 1972. Laura Crombie, Jeannette Fassett, Janet Ferry, Kunna Hilbrands, Kay Peterson, Ronni Urbana, and Jean Wrightnour made up her court.

Lee Wood, Pete Fleming, Scott Seaman, Sam Grippe, Brad Cordell, Rick Reinker, Jim Bollman, and Mike Juhola escorted the girls. Midst an excited hush at the Madison vs. Harbor football game, Wendie was announced queen and presented with a crown and roses.

The Harbor football team went on to a victory of 13-7 over Madison.

At the Homecoming Dance Rick Reinker, Student Council vice-president, crowned Wendie the official 1973 Homecoming queen.

The Windmills Of Your Mind

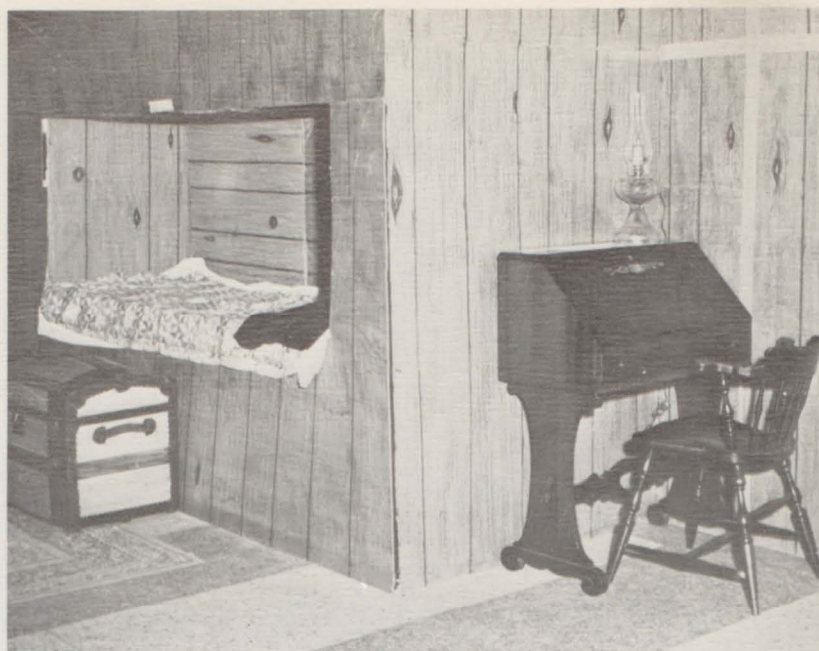

The theme of the 1972 prom was picked with foresight, what with the band's trip to Germany and Holland, and Kunna Hillbrands' stay in Ashtabula.

"The Windmills of Your Mind," the reigning theme, was based on a trip to Holland.

Guests stepped from the ship captain's quarters to the wharf. To the right was a lighted stream with real fish, a moving water wheel, a Dutch house, gardens, and a windmill with rotating vanes. The south was a mural of a Dutch town at night with lighted windows. The left wall was a wharf lined with shops and an inn.

King and queen of the prom were Mary Beth Carberry and Kirk Johnson.

Guests were entertained by "The Headliners." "The Law" played for the after-prom party.

The lobby was converted into captain's quarters.

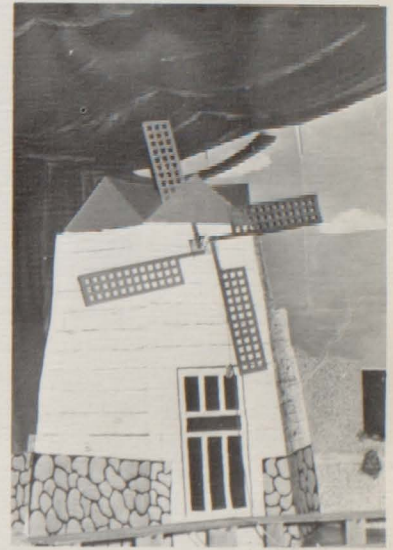

Will this thing really hold water?

The south wall was transformed into a typical Dutch town.

This windmill survived Gordon Evans' attack!

Do you think the ceiling will stay up this time?

Kunna

Kunna Hilbrands, from Bilthoven, Holland, our AFS student, lives with the Donald Coutts family. Her American sister Cindy is a junior.

Kunna found adjusting to America much easier than she had expected because of the helpfulness of family and friends.

She is busy with AFS activities and speeches, Art Club, Modern Dancers, Ski Club, yearbook staff, GAA, and a full schedule of courses.

She enjoys field hockey as well as sailing, swimming, and speed ice-skating. She also likes football games-something Holland doesn't have. In her limited spare time, Kunna sews and draws.

After returning to Holland, Kunna plans to study child psychology and art in Amsterdam.

Kunna thinks the key to world peace is understanding. "A good place to begin to understand others is by understanding yourself."

When do you think they'll call?

Kunna with her American sister, Cindy.

Kunna, holding Spooky, with Mrs. Coutts, Mr. Coutts, and Cindy seated in front with Daisy.

Quill & Scroll

To become a member of Quill & Scroll, a student must be a junior or senior in the upper third of his class, and he must have contributed something outstanding to the school's newspaper or yearbook.

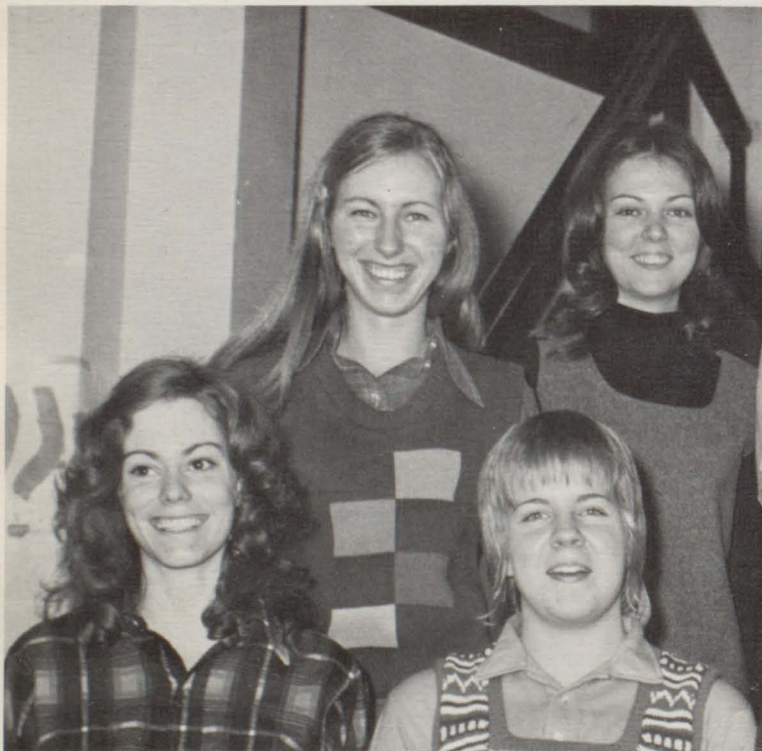

An international honorary literary organization, Quill & Scroll is a great honor to any high school student.

Only one day until the deadline!

“Of Thee I Sing”

The 32nd Annual Mariner Variety Show centered on the theme of politics, and was entitled “Of Thee I Sing.”

Jim McMillan and Pierre Triozzi, emcees, introduced the show after the opening number “Sit Down, John” from the musical “1776!”

Senior Women sang and presented their Miss Varieties, Connie Millberg. There were skits and songs tying in with the theme.

Marie Johnson was introduced as Miss Liberties and the Harbor choir sang.

The entire cast joined in to sing “Day by Day” and ended the 1973 show.

The Mouse That Roared

The Duchy of Grand Fenwick took over the Harbor stage on December 13 and 14 for the production of "The Mouse That Roared."

Vicki Sandberg and Eric Carlson played the lead roles. Brian Burnett and Chris Avery also shared in the plot to wage war on the United States to get war reparations given the losing country.

Eric, as Tully Bascom, led the Fenwick army in its invasion of the United States. They came armed only with bows and arrows — and won!

More excitement and fun grew out of the capture of Professor Kokintz (Dana Oxley) and his bodyguard, General Snippet (Bruce Matthews), and professor's invention, a super-bomb.

Pierre Triozzi and Tom Turner adjust the lighting.

Pam Spring, Bruce Matthews, Connie Millberg, and Sabrina Fobes enjoy watching others in rehearsal.

Laura Turner hams it up.

Brian Burnett, Vicki Sandberg, Chris Avery, and Eric Carlson rehearse a throne room scene.

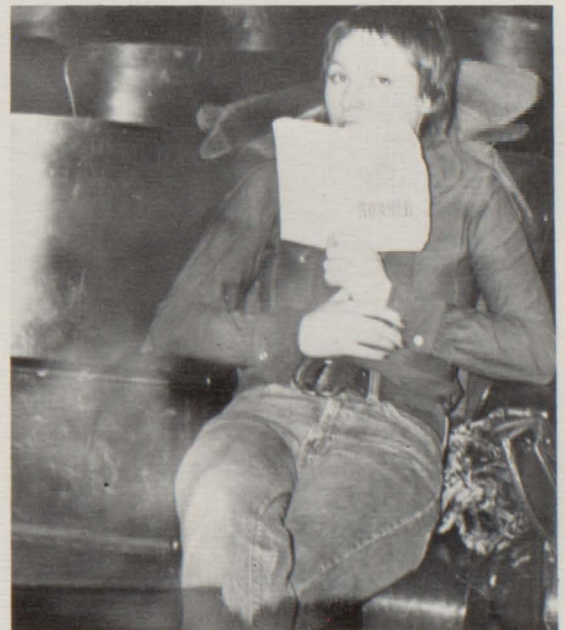

Bruce Matthews and his "daughter" Paula Dorman are members of the "new" army.

Ralph Buona does a radio announcement.

Vicki Sandberg, Brian Burnett, and Chris Avery prepare to lead Grand Fenwick into battle.

Newspaper Staff

Few of those who read the Mariner newspaper guess what goes into its making.

Journalism students solicit ads to finance it. They collect facts, write and re-write news stories, type and measure, lay out pages, compose headlines, take pictures, write captions, and compose headlines.

Return of printed copy brings on a flurry of paste-up activity to see if everything fits and what to do with the holes that always show up. Columns are lined up neatly and the whole thing shipped off again.

Within a few days the printed papers show up and are distributed.

Collecting for ads and doing publicity for the Variety Show are other chores.

Debbie Fisher, Carol Grey, and Katie Thomas are happy that another paste-up fits.

Beverly Blake completes her Variety Show poster, Debbie Bender proofreads a page, and Cathy Hakala types up another story.

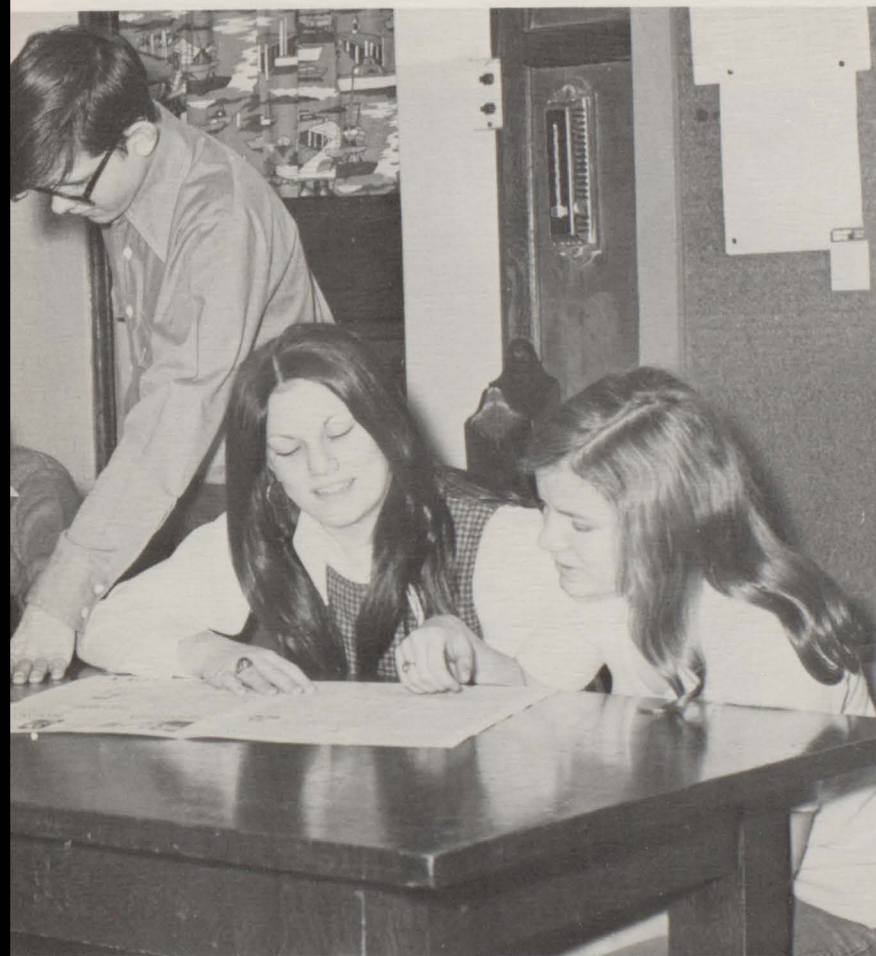

Connie Millberg gets a laugh out of the story Bob Koski is typing, but Jean Wrightnour looks skeptical.

Tom Rehrig, Rick Huff,

Robin Jaskela, Debbie Lee, Carlene Peet, and Peggy Huggins cook up some fun features for The Mariner.

Gail Rich, and Patty Petro check some pages.

Nancy Olkowski and Cindy Coutts rejoice over another problem solved.

Yearbook Staff

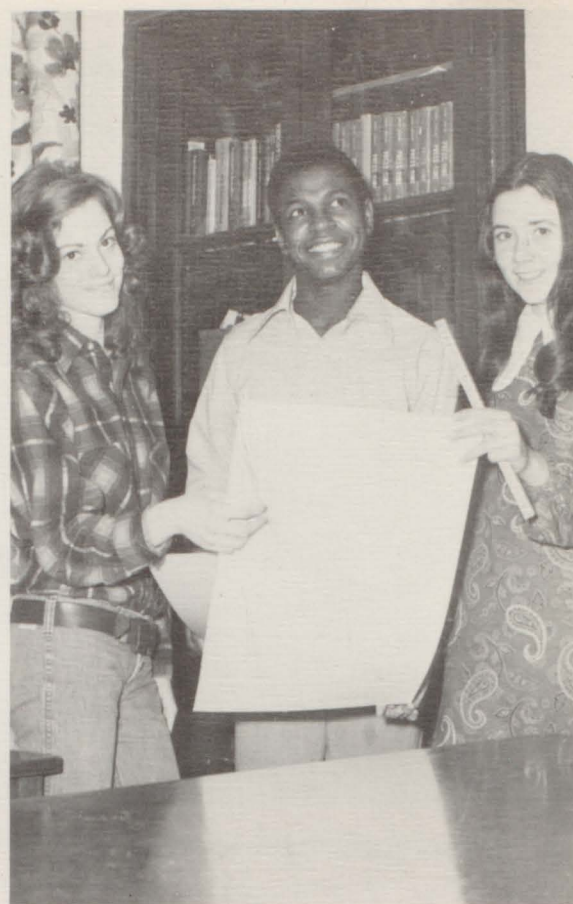

The yearbook staff, led by co-editors Tina Masters and Tom Turner, consists of many hard-working people. Nine different committees take care of special sections of the yearbook.

Co-editors organize the entire book and work to meet deadlines. Section editors delegate responsibility to their committees.

The Art Committee is responsible for drawings and sketches. The Advertising Committee takes care of all ads, sponsors, and patrons. They arrange the order of the ads and collect the money for them. The Photography Committee gets all the pictures, candid and organizational ones, for the Mariner.

The Activities Committee organizes all clubs and organizations. Senior Album Committee gathers material for the directory. Subscription Committee collects money and takes orders for the yearbook. The Literary Committee does all the writing. Sports Committee gathers scores and data, gets pictures of athletes in action, and then identifies them. Underclassmen Committee identifies each student and puts him in alphabetical order.

Throughout the year, each committee has had deadlines to meet and many things to do in preparation for the 1973 Mariner yearbook.

Co-Editors

We would like to express our thanks to everyone who helped to make this yearbook possible. Very few people realize all the time, effort, and hard work that go into the production of these pages.

But because of the dedication of Pierre, Kay, Jean, Jeannette, Nancy, Bonnie, Lee, Carol, Amy, Marie and Gordon we were able to successfully assemble the 1973 Mariner.

We also owe a great deal to Pete Prentner, the Walsworth Publishing Company representative, and Miss Mary Boyce, our adviser, who was always there to help and advise us.

Through these pages, we have tried to show the different phases of Harbor. The big events of the year were important, but so were the everyday occurrences that make up the majority of our high school memories.

Though we all may have excelled in different aspects of school—anything from art to baseball, wood-working to physics—together we formed one unit, the Class of '73

Band On Tour

With mounting excitement, members of the Harbor High School Band boarded the jet, that was to land them in Cologne, Germany on August 13, 1972.

From the first to the last dollar of a hard-earned $70,000, each member knew that the band's trip was worth the time, money, and energy.

Touring Amsterdam, practicing, playing concerts, seeing both sides of Berlin, visiting German villages (especially the Olympic village in Munich), winding up for the big show, and taking part in it flew by so swiftly that it came as a shock to the band to suddenly be back home on August 28.

Powerful Mariners Fall Short Of Title

The 1972 version of the Harbor Mariner grid team had a new coach in Glenn Sutherin but displayed the same style of play that brought them the league championship the previous year.

However, this year their powerful crushing offense, trademark attributed to Mariner grid teams, could not over-power all of their NEC opponents.

The Mariners, however, did display enough of the typical Harbor talent to accumulate a 6-4 record, good enough for 3rd place in the city and 4th in the league.

Games which highlighted the year were Harbor's 13-7 homecoming victory over Madison, their 21-8 win against over-rated Edgewood, and the Mariners' 41-6 stomping of Jefferson.

The Mariners' offensive attack was spearheaded by the backfield made up of seniors Rich Chupick, Pete Fleming, and Dave Peet, plus junior Matt Kent. Providing the Mariner backfield with running room were senior tackles Mike Juhola and Jeff Agnew, along with senior end Jim Bollman.

Leading the Harbor defense throughout the season were middle linebacker Ron Chambers, outside linebacker Rich Chupick, middle guard Tom Peters, and senior linebacker Russ Keene.

Though Harbor could not retain the NEC championship, it can justly be said that they had a great deal of individual talent and were a much better team than indicated by their record.

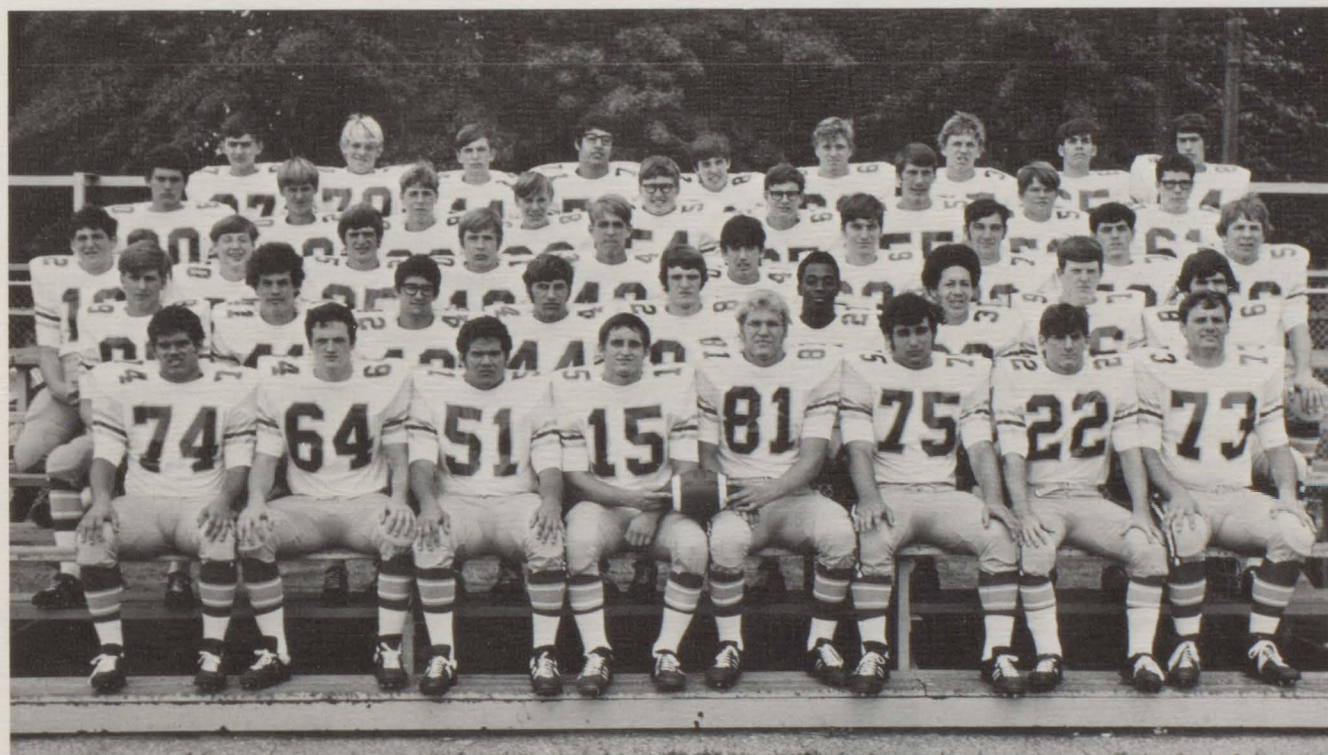

The Mariners take it over for the score.

Dismal Year For Cross Country

Harbor's cross country team, having few experienced runners, managed only to win one meet and lose six. But under the supervision of Mr. Dean McQuaide, a first-year teacher at Harbor, the team gained valuable experience. Dan Lee and Jeff Viall were the only senior runners.

The cross country squad hopes for a better season next year.

Fast-Breaking Mariners Have Good Season

Prior to the '72-'73 basketball season, Larry Bragga promised Mariner fans an exciting, fast-breaking run-and-gun brand of basketball. Although the Mariners did not capture the NEC crown, Coach Bragga's prophecy was fulfilled.

Led by seniors Jim Bollman, Jim Goodwin, and Dave Fortune, and high-scoring junior John Coleman, they fought their way to a second-place finish in the league with an 11-3 record. At press-time Harbor was the favorite to take the Sectional Tournament title for the second year in a row.

With a look to the future, Coach Bragga has some promising prospects in sophomores Ray Henton, James Bradley, and Allan Ziegler, all of whom were starters at one time or another throughout the year.

Coaches Bragga and Chutas voice their opinions of a controversial call.

J.V.'S GO 11-6

The 1972-73 Junior Varsity Basketball team followed in the footsteps of the varsity cagers, taking second place in N.E.C. competition, just as the varsity did. Although the Mariner reserves lost 3 outstanding members to the varsity team, under the guidance of Coach Ron Chutas, they finished the year with an 11-6 slate. Coach Chutas cited Byron Sargent, Greg Schlaich, and Kevin Lillie for their consistent play throughout the season. The Mariners also got fine support from Jack Cunningham and Josh Sheldon in the latter part of the season.

Big Jack Cunningham and an opponent go up for the tip-off.

Under heavy pressure Ray Henton puts up a shot.

Freshmen Have 10-2 Season

Considering the fine season the frosh cage team rolled up, the Harbor basketball picture looks bright for years to come.

Bob Short, in his second successful year as the freshman basketball mentor, guided his team to a 10-2 league record.

Besides the second-place NEC finish, the young Mariners took the runner-up position in the county tournament.

Coach Short commented that their good season was due to a fine team effort, with each player contributing in one way or another throughout the season.

Serving as managers for the season were Dan Jones, Chuck Amzibel, and Gary Van Norman.

Injuries Plague Wrestling Squad

The 1972-73 wrestling season was a rebuilding one for the Harbor Mariners. Although their young team was plagued by several injuries the Mariners managed a 2-7 dual meet record plus a 6th place, and 3rd place finishes in the N.E.C. and Edgewood Invitational tournaments respectively. Coaches Rich Gregor, George Begalla, and Dean McQuaide all commented that Dave Myllimaki, the team's only senior, had one of the team's better records while wrestling above his weight class. Other outstanding performers included Steve Womble (98 lb. class) and Frank Petro (175 lb. class). Womble took the 1st place in the N.E.C. and 3rd in the Sectional, while Petro took 4th in the Sectional. Both boys competed in the District Tournament.

Rebuilding Year For Cindermen

In the dismal 3-5 Mariner '72-'73 track season several bright spots appeared. Team competition was fair, but there were several outstanding individual performers.

Carl Labry, Jim Rennick, and Tim Sedmak took care of the shot put and discus. Jeff Viall took second in the city in the high jump.

Sophomores Matt Kent and Ron Pitts were among county leaders in the 440 and 880 yard runs. Senior Chip Howes placed second in the city in the high hurdles; in low hurdles Mike Facello was NEC and City series champ and second in district.

The 880 relay team of Sedmak, Facello, Wiser, and Huggins qualified for the Regionals.

Highlight of the track season was the mile relay team of Don and Ron Pitts, Bill Wiser, and Roger Thomas. They set and re-set the county record and placed second in District and Regional meets. For a grand finale the mile relay team took third in the big state meet.

Jones, Albert Anderson, Mark Wagner, Dick Cairns, Ron Chambers, Jim Goodwin, Del Cochran, Ray Henton.

It was truly a year of firsts for Harbor's baseball team. Harbor had a new staff this year: head coach, Bob Rich, and his assistant, Bob Short. With these two mentors, Harbor's experienced diamond crew roared through the NEC with an 11-1 record and finished the season with a total of 16 wins and 3 losses.

This year was the first in Harbor baseball history that the Mariners snared the top spot in the league. The Mariners were sparked all year by the dynamic pitching of first-team All-NEC pick Dick Cairns and Dave Peet, aided by the consistent play of Rich Chupick, Pete Fleming, Jim Goodwin, and Josh Sheldon. Chupick, Goodwin, and Sheldon were 2nd place All-NEC picks.

The big standout in Harbor's season was Mark Wagner, All-NEC 2nd baseman and shortstop for three years. Wagner finished with a .486 batting average and 30 runs batted in—both good enough for first in league statistics. Mark signed a contract with the Detroit Tigers later in the summer and finished the year playing minor league ball with the Tigers organization.

Individual honors went to the following players: Mark Wagner, highest batting average; Rich Chupick, highest fielding average; Mark Wagner and Dick Cairns, most valuable player; Dick Cairns, Wilbert S. Willey award; Dave Peet, clutch player of the year award.

Another Championship For The Golf Team

Once again Harbor reigned as NEC golf champions. However, 1972 was a little different for Coach Wasulko, as he had his most inexperienced team since 1963, when he suffered through his only losing season (6-7-1).

In fact, he had only one returning letterman, sophomore Chuck Redmond. Coach Wasulko did manage to find four other golfers to do the job. They were seniors Paul Palm and Craig Berteau, junior Eric Wagner, and sophomore John Lillvis.

These five carried the bulk of the load and as a result were the only letterwinners. Coach Wasulko and his men did an excellent job, combining for 14 wins, 5 losses, and 1 tie, good enough for another NEC title.

At season's end John Lillvis was selected as the team's most valuable golfer and was selected first team all-NEC.

After the season's results Coach Wasulko's all time record stood at 173 wins, 30 losses, and 5 ties.

The 1971-72 Mariner tennis team under the direction of Coach Robert Huff continued the winning tradition which has made them one of the finest tennis teams in the county for many years. Every year since tennis was originated at Harbor, the tennis team has concluded the season on the winning side of the ledger.

As far as individual performances were concerned, the Mariners fared quite well, sending Stredney and the doubles team of McMillan and Hellman to Youngstown for Sectional Tournament play.

Stredney finished that tourney as the tourney co-champion. McMillan and Hellman were runners-up in doubles competition. All three boys were then accorded the honor of competing in district competition at Akron.

During the season the Mariners were led by captain and first singles man Dale Stredney, who received the R. L. Huff award; standout sophomore and most valuable player Mark Starkey; Scott Seaman; and the doubles team of Hellman and McMillan.

The Mariners finished 8-5 over all and 6-5 NEC, third in league competition.

Basketball

After two NEC co-championship years, the Harbor girls' basketball team finished a "re-building" year with a record of 3 wins and 5 losses.

Nancy Fusco, the only senior, led the team in rebounds and in scoring. Other scoring leaders were Sue Andrews, Sue Laine, Peggy Huggins, and Nancy Kohut, all of whom were juniors.

Mrs. Rita Scribbs, coach since the conception of girls' NEC basketball, commented at the end of the season, "We were very pleased to beat Conneaut on their home court. It took us three years to accomplish this! We feel that our season was a success because of the improvement and development of the players' skills."
